Step Three:

Once signed in, select “Live Courses”. From there, you will see a button to Register. Complete the registration information and included survey. You will receive an email confirming that your registration is then complete.

The screenshot shows the Maine Medical Center website's "Live Courses" section. At the top, the Maine Medical Center logo is on the left, and a user greeting "Welcome Rachael Silvano," is on the right. A navigation bar contains links: Sign Out, Live Courses (highlighted), Online Courses, RSS Calendar, About, Contact Us, Live Webcasts, Learning from Teaching, Help, and My CME. The "Live Courses" section features a search bar with "All Specialties" and "All Locations" filters, a "Reset" button, and a "Quick Search..." field. Below the search bar, a "Show 10 entries" dropdown is visible. The first entry is the "7th Annual Faculty Development Conference", which includes logos for MITE and Maine Medical Center, the date "Wednesday, September 26, 2018 8:00 AM - 3:00 PM", and the location "Dana Center at Maine Medical Center 22 Bramhall St Portland, ME 04102, Portland, ME". It lists specialties as "Multiple Specialties, Academic/Research" and describes it as a "Day long conference with a focus on faculty and professional development. Featuring speaker presentations, interactive workshops, and poster sessions." At the bottom of the entry are "REGISTER" and "DETAILS" buttons. The footer shows "Showing 1 to 1 of 1 entries" and pagination controls with "Previous", "1", and "Next" buttons.
